NEW YORK POLICE CAMP ON PIER HELD READY FOR STRIKE DUTY

NEW YORK POLICE HELD READY FOR STRIKE DUTY

"The policeman's life is not a happy one," says a character in one of Gilbert and Sullivan's operas, and New York's "cops" have proved the truth of the saying in these days of traction strikes, for they are called upon to do much extra work. Here's a

The McMann Well Shot Oil Over The Eighty Foot Derrick Revealing The Hidden Treasure.

The Oil is Higher Grade Than Healdton and while the capacity of the well is not determined, an immense pool is indicated. Means millions to city of Ardmore.

Another pool of oil has been added to the Ardmore assets by the coming in of the Fox field last night.

The oil shot over the eighty-foot derrick at 1960 feet, and the well was capped as soon as possible so that the real extent of the flow has not been determined.

That the oil is there, and in large quantities, however, is established without the shadow of a doubt and excitement can be expected to run high in Ardmore from now on.

The history of that section reads like a fairy tale. Months ago the oil fraternity began to cast their eyes on the Fox district and little by little land which was worth but little, was leased on its speculative value at prices far in excess of its real value. When the McMan Company put up its rig, interest, then exceedingly great, was intensified, and from that date until now it has been the center of speculative eyes.

Before daylight this morning the news reached Ardmore "The McMan well has come in," and like wildfire the news spread all over the city, and before eight o'clock scores of autos were speeding to the Fox field. About noon today the report was verified, and as late as three o'clock the Ardmoreite was able to get the above report; that the well came in, with oil shooting over the derrick, and that it had been shut down preparatory to being gauged. That the oil is of better grade than Healdton but not quite as high as Cushing, was also given out by the Company.

Its importance to Ardmore cannot be overestimated. Scores of local men have interests in that section and it has been repeatedly stated that "if the Fox field came in," some extensive developments were to take place immediately in this city.

St. Joseph, Mo., Sept. 25.—A grand jury will be appointed immediately to hear the case of Oscar D. McDaniel, prosecuting attorney of Buchanan county, who was arrested last night on a warrant charging him with the murder of his wife last July.

According to B. M. Lockwood, special prosecutor, strained domestic relations led to the murder.

Following the shooting of Mrs. McDaniel on July 15, last, McDaniel told a sensational story of having received a decoy telephone call, which took him downtown and that upon his return home he found his wife dying. He claimed that the shooting of his wife was the result of an attempt upon his own life by law violators, against whom he had been active.
